Karen: doctor's appt tomorrow (tuesday) at noon, will you be at home or at office?
me: probably office, but I'll call you either way
Karen: don't forget to take him those gifts.
me: gotcha
Karen: do you want to go to the office this afternoon? i can take you along with your bag of gifts?
me: nope
Karen: what did you spend your $300 on last night?
me: weed in bulk so I wouldn't have to buy any for a long time
Karen: is that why you couldn't get up and go to the office this morning?
me: no, that was because I started drinking right after the Kim thing
Karen: okay, well that excuse will work once.
